Project overview

TOGETHER Project [Innovative European learning path to facilitate the access of refugees to higher education] is co-funded by the Erasmus+.

7 Partners from 3 EU Member States (Greece, Italy and Portugal) are involved in the project: 3 Higher Education Institutes (HEIs) and 4 NGOs

TOGETHER Project is supported by 36 associate partners, contributing to the improvement of the project impact on their target groups and ensuring the Project's sustainability.

More than 100 students and refugees from HEIs have been involved in the Project.

3 Intellectual Outputs have been developed.

Aims & objectives

To raise awareness among academic community on the inclusion of refugees and other beneficiaries of international protection within the Higher Education Institutions,

To work closely with Higher Education staff, both academic and administrative, as well as Higher Education students, refugees (and other beneficiaries of international protection) students and policy makers, by sharing with them specific instruments, knowledge and skills, in order to develop their social responsibility and

To empower them as important actors in the shaping of a more inclusive Higher Education environment.
